Architectural section drawing of a building corner. The drawing is divided into two main areas: 'STGH BESTAND' (Existing) on the left and 'ZUBAU NEU' (New Addition) on the right. The existing structure features a grey concrete wall and a blue-tinted glass section. The new addition is shown in white with a red structural frame. A vertical red line indicates the boundary between the existing and new construction. The drawing includes various structural details, such as floor slabs, walls, and a staircase area labeled 'OK Podest Bestand +11,198'. The drawing is oriented horizontally, with the building's length extending from left to right.
